- C. Three (3) years after the date of sentencing in any other case.

552. PROBATION CONDITIONED ON RESTITUTION; FAILURE TO COMPLY

- A. In the event that defendant is placed on probation, any restitution shall be a condition of that probation.
- B. The Court may revoke probation in the event defendant fails to comply with the order and has not made a good faith effort to do so.
- C. If the Court finds that payment of the amount due will impose a manifest hardship on the defendant or defendant's immediate family, the Court may cancel all or part of the amount due in restitution or modify the method of payment.
- D. Prior to making any decision regarding the consequence of defendant's failure to comply, the Court shall receive from the Crime Victim's Advocate documentation that the victim received timely advance notice of the date and time of the hearing on probation revocation, and was informed that the victim has the right to appear and make an oral statement or to submit a written statement at the hearing.

553. RESTITUTION AMOUNT OR TYPE – The Court shall consider, when determining the amount of restitution, the amount of loss sustained by any victim as a result of the offense, the financial resources and earning capacity of defendant, the financial need of defendant and defendant's dependents, and such other factors as the Court determines appropriate.

Any dispute as to the proper amount or type of restitution shall be resolved by the Court by a preponderance of the evidence. The burden of demonstrating the earning capacity of defendant and the amount of loss sustained by the victim shall be carried by the Crime Victim's Advocate. The burden of demonstrating the financial resources of defendant and the financial need of defendant and defendant's dependents shall be on the defendant. The burden of demonstrating such other matters as the Court deems appropriate shall be on the party designated by the Court as justice requires.

554. NOTICE OF APPEAL; IMPACT ON VICTIM

- A. Upon the victim's request, the Crime Victim's Advocate shall notify the victim of the following after sentencing:

1. Defendant has filed an appeal of defendant's conviction;
  2. Brief explanation of the appeal process, including possible outcomes;
  3. Defendant's whereabouts pending the appeal's disposition, i.e., whether defendant has been released on bail or other recognizance;
  4. Time and place of any appellate court proceedings and any change in the time and place, should that occur; and
  5. Result of the appeal.
- B. In the event that defendant's conviction is reversed and the case is returned to the trial court for further proceedings, the victim shall then have the same rights as previously enumerated in this Part Three.
555. NOTICE OF FINAL DISPOSITION – Upon the victim's request, the Crime Victim's Advocate shall notify the victim in writing of the final disposition of the case. In no event shall such notice be issued more than 30 days of the final disposition.
556. FAILURE TO PROVIDE NOTICE OR RIGHT TO VICTIM – The failure to provide a right, privilege or notice to a victim under this Part Three shall not be grounds for defendant to seek to have the conviction or sentence set aside.
557. NO CAUSE OF ACTION – Nothing in this Part Three shall be interpreted as creating a cause of action for money damages against the Tribe or any of its agencies or instrumentalities, or its employees.
