

Chapter VI

CRIMINAL CODE

PART ONE – GENERAL PRINCIPLES

601. VIOLATION OF AN APPROVED TRIBAL ORDINANCE – Any person who violates an ordinance designed to preserve the peace and welfare of the Community, which has been duly executed by the Tribal Council, shall be deemed guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced as provided in the ordinance.
602. LIMITATION OF FILING A COMPLAINT – No complaint shall be filed pursuant to Chapter VI of the Bay Mills Law and Order Code unless the alleged offense shall have been committed within six years prior to the date of the complaint. If, however, the complaint involves a sex assault of a minor child, there is no limitation.
603. FOREIGN CONVICTION OR ACQUITTAL – If an act or omission constitutes an offense under both the ordinances of the Bay Mills Indian Community and the laws of another jurisdiction, the act or omission will not bar prosecution for the offense in Tribal Court.
604. AUTHORIZED USE OF FORCE – Reasonable force may be used upon or toward the person of another without his consent when any of the following circumstances exist or the actor reasonably believes them to exist:
- A. When used by a tribal police officer or one assisting him under his direction:
 - 1. In effecting a lawful arrest;
 - 2. In the execution of legal process;
 - 3. In enforcing an order of the Court;
 - 4. In executing any other duty imposed upon him by law; or
 - B. When used by any person in self-defense or the defense of others.
605. INTOXICATION AS A DEFENSE – An act committed while in a state of voluntary intoxication is not a defense, but when a particular intent or other state of mind is a necessary element to constitute a particular offense, the fact of intoxication may be taken into consideration in determining such intent or state of mind.

606. INSANITY – The Court, upon its own motion or by either of the parties, may make a determination as to whether or not the Defendant was mentally capable to formulate the necessary criminal intent at the time the crime was committed. The Court shall require the evaluation of such Defendant by a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist prior to such a hearing to determine the Defendant’s mental ability to commit the crime. If after the hearing, the Court feels that the Defendant was unable to formulate the required mental ability to commit the crime by clear and convincing evidence because of mental defect, illness or retardation, the Court may dismiss the case, find the Defendant guilty, guilty but mentally ill or not guilty. If the Court dismisses the case, the Court may order the Defendant to be treated by health officials.

PART TWO - OFFENSES

607. ASSAULT OR DOMESTIC ASSAULT – Any person who shall attempt or threaten to do bodily harm to another person through unlawful force or violence shall be deemed guilty of assault, and upon conviction thereof, may be sentenced to imprisonment of not more than 180 days, payment of a fine not to exceed $2,500, or both.
